Stena Line Ports Limited,
Port Control, Holyhead, Anglesey, LL65 1DQ

Located on the Isle of Anglesey,
the Port of Holyhead is the gateway to North Wales and Snowdonia.

The Port of Holyhead is Wales' premier deep water port. It provides instant access to the ancient history and natural, rugged beauty of Anglesey and North Wales.

Our services and facilities

Every cruise call receives a warm Welsh welcome at the quayside.

We are here to help. Passengers and crew can use the dedicated quayside internet suite free of charge, and our friendly tourist information team can provide visitor information and assist with itinerary planning.

Coach parking is available at the quayside. A shuttle bus runs from the Port of Holyhead to the town centre and shopping area for passengers and crew.

Additional capabilities

The natural deep water harbour is easily navigated and open 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Pilotage is compulsory and arranged in advance. Cruise call quayside services include mooring/unmooring, gangway deployment and coach marshalling.

Security

The Port of Holyhead is one of the UK's busiest ferry ports and therefore its security complies entirely with the ISPS code. The port is regularly inspected by Government Maritime Security Inspectors and has an extensive CCTV system.

The Port of Holyhead is less than two minutes from the A55 North Wales Expressway, which runs from the centre of Holyhead into the UK motorway network. Manchester and Liverpool are under a two-hour drive away.
